Raising Revenue from the Mines

Measures [illegible] for the General Government by taxin[illegible] lands of the [illegible] several times been urg[illegible] again be m[illegible] tenement of the [illegible] say that the [illegible] shirk its [illegible] They do n[illegible] consistent with the [illegible] State and all they are [illegible] for raising revenue fr[illegible] adopted that will n[illegible] tions, or hinder the devel[illegible] regions that are fast [illegible] and prospected. By the [illegible] the miner now goes [illegible] wilderness that are unfit for human [illegible] eral wealth exists there [illegible] ledges and placer mines with the full confidence that a reasonable share of what he may [illegible] own to all practical intent and purposes and that he can possess [illegible] protected by the law and [illegible] the Government.

The wisdom of the plan has been manifested by time, and all practical miners, as well as experienced business men upon this coast perceive the utter impossibility of making [illegible] work in a satisfactory manner. [illegible] put a price on mining ground to be [illegible] by the Government would be to virtually [illegible] for it would deaden enterprise and discourage men whose energy and hardihood is all the capital they have to invest. Pr[illegible] valuable mining claims would be [illegible] collector came around to assess a price upon them and enforce payment for the Government, and the real result accomplished would be to enable capital to monopolize all, as it naturally already does the greater part of the valuable mining interests of the United States and every other country. A [illegible] upon treasure products levied directly upon the producer would be also [illegible] in its effects, as well as [illegible] enforced, and many companies who start in with nothing and only gradually work into an independent condition would be embarrassed if [illegible] called upon to pay a heavy tax when they [illegible] realizing means enough to make both ends meet. To put mineral lands into the market and [illegible] them would be to give monopolists every thing they could ask. To charge per [illegible] ledges before they are opened and tested, would be to make a man pay as much for worthless wild cat [illegible] might offer inducements enough to [illegible] upon, without realizing his expectations as his fortunate neighbor, would have to pay for his claim on the Comstock, Morning Star or Oro Fino. Still another plan, to charge a per cent on net proceeds, would be [illegible] as there would be too much opportunity to evade the tax by dishonest returns. It is a [illegible] problem in the science of political economy [illegible] and the Pacific States are right in insisting that no action shall embarrass their interests, hinder their development or check the energy and enterprise of all their hardy and adventurous prospectors.

The present system works well, and we doubt if it can easily be improved. [illegible] the coinage, assay and export of precious metals and if the present tax is insufficient, increase it to the extent that the mining interest will bear and let it be in reality and indirectly what could not be accomplished other ways with certainty, a tax levied on all products of gold and silver mines, collected without expense and almost perfect in its efficiency. Even this works at disadvantage as it reduces the commercial value of gold and silver at the mine and in the market, taking as large a percentage from the poor man who[illegible] year has been wasted in unrequited labor as from the rich corporation that sends its millions to be coined; but works well because it is a tax collected without being felt or at once realized, and no one complains of it now and no one probably will do so, though those who favor its excessive increase must be careful how they carry out their speculative ideas, for any such increase all [illegible] the miner whose labor is hard and whose [illegible] is small, far more sensibly than the [illegible] paying mining companies. After all the world does not realize that most of the gold [illegible] up made at night—the scanty dividends of the week's labor—that furnish [illegible] of the gold that is [illegible] by millions and figures largely in treasure lists. The representatives of the Pacific coast should [illegible] watch any action upon the subject not seeking to avoid our proportion of responsibility or taxation, but to save our mining interests from being tampered with by unwise legislation.

Court [illegible] Some time since the Flag published a communication [illegible] on the sly—a sh[illegible] insinuating that Capt Sullivan [illegible] of the Pacific had been guilty [illegible] and that [illegible] were not [illegible] with on the square [illegible] the substance of which being afterwards embodied [illegible] in the same paper. On [illegible] of Capt Sullivan, Gen McDowell [illegible] Court of Inquiry to examine the [illegible] the result of which has been to fully exonerate Captain Sullivan in his official [illegible] in the unpleasant [illegible] findings of the Court of [illegible] statements that [illegible] are utterly and wholly [illegible] and highly injurious to the interests [illegible]

A Frozen River.—A [illegible] tells us that the [illegible] from Jordan Creek to Boise City [illegible] even for Snake river [illegible] down from Boise City [illegible] Snake river on the [illegible] three feet thick, which is [illegible] old business of ferrying [illegible] cattle will hardly live as the [illegible] is very [illegible] indeed.

Shipwreck [illegible]—We learn from the British Colonist that the [illegible] from the West Coast arrived January [illegible] and the [illegible] was hove [illegible] summer [illegible] cargo [illegible] Island [illegible] of the wreck was given by the Captain to the American consul at Victoria, Allen Francis, Esq.

The bark Hermann, of San Francisco [illegible] with lumber at Port N[illegible] [illegible] Nothing remarkable [illegible] [illegible] the gale [illegible] water [illegible] to the eastward struck the bark and threw her on her beam ends, carrying away her [illegible] and washing [illegible] wheel, and also the lumber, water and provisions on deck. In about an hour the bark righted. We then got all the spare rope we could [illegible] rigged a jury mast, and [illegible] kept us off the land as long as possible. After drifting four days [illegible] westward we struck a reef on Nootka [illegible] We then [illegible] a raft [illegible] all clothing except shirts and [illegible] to shore. On reaching the shore [illegible] washed three men from [illegible] they were drowned, leaving only four [illegible] the master. On the beach we met an Indian who guided us to his house and after keeping us two days took us in a canoe [illegible] miles from the wreck to an inlet of Nootka [illegible] Indian ranch, where we remained [illegible] the Indians treating us very kindly, furnishing us with some clothing. We found the Indians [illegible] neither spoke Chinook or English and everything was done by signs. The [illegible] Captain [illegible] arrived at Nootka Sound and [illegible] to give us a passage round to Victoria but if he had not met us we would have gone further north on the Island.

Accordingly we accepted the kind offer of Captain [illegible] and arrived in Victoria, Vancouver Island, on the 14th of January 1865, being 36 days on board of his sloop, having lost all personal effects in the wreck of the bark.

The names, as recollected, of the lost were Richard Sutton, of New York, James Newell, of New York, two Norwegians, and two Americans. The crew were all shipped in San Francisco.

General Rosecrans' Final Report.—To the General Orders of General Rosecrans, dated December 8th, he thus closes his account of operations against General Price:

On the 24th of November, at midnight, after marching some sixty miles, with little water, except the rain on your backs, and less food for men or horses, you again overtook them at Marais des Cygnes, began skirmishing, and at four A.M. on the 25th, opening with artillery, routed them with loss, capturing mules, horses, etc., etc. Thence in a running fight, you pursued to the Little Osage Crossing, where two advanced brigades under Benteen and Phillips charged two rebel divisions, routed them, captured eight pieces of artillery and near one thousand prisoners, including Generals Cabell and Marmaduke. Sanborn's brigade again led in pursuit, overtook them and made two more brilliant charges, driving everything before it across the Marmiton, whence the enemy fled, under cover of night, toward Arkansas. After thus marching two hundred and four miles in six days, and beating the enemy, his flying columns were pursued toward the Arkansas by the Kansas troops and Benteen's brigade while Sanborn, following, marched one hundred and four miles in thirty six hours, and on the 28th reached Newtonia, where the enemy made his last stand, in time to turn the tide of battle, which was going against General Blunt, again routing the enemy and giving the final blow to the greatest cavalry raid of the war.

The substantial results of this brilliant series of operations are, that while our infantry and dismounted men nobly performed their share of the work by fighting at Pilot Knob and Glasgow, holding the depots and important points, and backing your hazards, the enemy, entering the State with a mounted force of veteran troops, variously estimated at from 15,000 to 26,000, and 18 pieces of artillery, with vast expectations of revolutionizing the State, destroying Kansas and operating on the "Presidential election," after having added to his force 6,000 Missourians which General Marmaduke [illegible] General Pleasanton we armed and organized into a division, has been defeated in all his schemes, his [illegible] confined to the narrow belt of country over which he [illegible] and routed by you in four engagements; he has lost ten pieces of artillery, a large number of small arms, nearly all his trains and plunder, and besides his killed, wounded and deserters, 1,958 prisoners which we have now in possession, and the latest reports confirm the statement that when the enemy's forces recrossed the Arkansas demoralization, desertion and losses had reduced their strength to less than 5,000, but partially armed and mounted with three pieces of artillery and their horses in the most wretched condition, all this has been accomplished by less than 7,000 cavalry, most of whom never before saw a great battle, and your entire loss in killed, wounded and missing, is only 346, officers and men. The records of this war furnish no more brilliant and decisive results.

From Vancouver Island and British Columbia.—We learn from the British Colonist that a steam tug and dredger are about ready to commence operations at Victoria.

The Provinces of British Columbia and Vancouver are included in the Confederation scheme of the East should the Legislatures of those Provinces agree to it.

Mining in the northern gold fields seems to have been almost universally suspended by the severity of the winter season.

A new mining creek had been struck on [illegible] [illegible] with its sand, for results.

The question of a Free Port has lately been agitated at Victoria, and at a public meeting held at the Athenæum Hall a resolution was adopted declaring that "the condition of this Colony would be materially improved by the abolition of the Free Port and the substitution of a protective tariff."

Barley is being raised in Vancouver Island for brewing purposes of the Island.

The new Government steam tug Sir James Douglas, was successfully launched on the 7th January at Victoria.

Business at Victoria was dull, with not much prospect for a speedy improvement.

The body of a sailor from H. B. M. ship Charybdis was found drowned January 7th.

The Last Ditch Discovered.—A correspondent of the Toulon Times, writing from Columbia, South Carolina, on September 23d, says in discussing the prospects of the fall and winter campaign:

But suppose the Confederates were driven from both Virginia and Georgia, and in their last [illegible] either conquered or dispersed in South or North Carolina, there is still the magnificent domain of Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas and Missouri, in extent vaster than the whole Austrian monarchy and the kingdoms of Greece and Italy combined, [illegible] likewise almost free from Federals [illegible] full of resources to which the Confederate Government [illegible] the Mississippi.

Gold [illegible]—We [illegible] rich quartz discovery [illegible] near [illegible] by a party of [illegible] miners from [illegible] [illegible] be called quartz which is four fifths gold. Mr. [illegible] of Wells, Fargo & Co. exhibited [illegible] specimen from the new mines which is worth about $1,000—perhaps more. It is about six [illegible] in length and [illegible] in diameter [illegible] of the finest specimens of rough gold in quartz [illegible] [illegible] the mint to be converted into $20 pieces.—[illegible]

Three drunken rebel lieutenants were lately tried in Richmond for parading the streets, arm in arm with negro women. Where are the chivalry drifting?

SPOKANE INDIANS.—The affray between Indians near this city on Saturday night last, was investigated before Recorder Meloy yesterday, and the squaw [illegible] released, it being proven that he killed [illegible] in self-defence. [illegible] Indian [illegible] the majority of the straggling Indians in our midst at present are of the Spokane tribe, which lately have been in the way of the guardians of [illegible], or the recipients of [illegible] their frequent [illegible]. Years ago some hundreds of them were engaged upon the soil now occupied by our city and made the stillness of the woods lively with their whoop and yell—"proud monarchs of the forest." Now instead of that savage [illegible] their [illegible] they had a life of [illegible] of this of white men [illegible] to distinguish a crust from the mire. Then they lived in a degree of comfort more tolerable for the free exercise of pleasure. In their own country they form the prairie bearing their own name, much in the same manner as the [illegible] tribe of Pawnees. Missions were established about the time Dr. Whitman came among the Umatillas and they encouraged the pursuits which to-day make them a home. No treaties have been made, and they come to these [illegible] as often as their [illegible] fellows with a degree of shame evident [illegible] all that appears to us the most miserable, and why the authorities do not evince some regard for their welfare in restoring them to their homes and compelling them to stay there, is not at last the most clear problem to our minds, believing that the desire of all our citizens would place them beyond our borders.

THE SKATING YESTERDAY.—The finest day's sport of the season was enjoyed on Crystal Lake yesterday. The turnout was quite extensive, including very many ladies, among whom we noticed a few very nimble skaters. Miss A., Miss M. and Miss ——, won the palm, on the list of ladies it was our pleasure to witness, yet we understand there were others who did equally as well. Skating is decidedly a fine, health-giving amusement for the ladies, it imparts a ruddy glow to the cheeks, gives a life-invigorating impetus to the system, and carries with it the embodiment of all that tends to revive the dormant energies of a sex which has been acknowledged to be lacking with American women. Of late years the feebler sex of our country have given more attention to these annual out-door exercises, and according to all accounts with very beneficial results. We hope to see more of the lady residents of Oregon taking steps to improve of such opportunities for their amusement. Of the gentlemen whom we judged to be the finest skaters yesterday, we might class Lieut. Kappus first, Mr. Harvey Hodge second. Mr. R. H. Law, Mr. Chas. E. Calef, Marshal Hoyt, and Mr. Ferguson, were all excellent, and handled the skates with superior adaptness, while hundreds would vie with them in carrying off the palm at a trial for prizes. To-day, should the weather continue cold and the ice remain as good as it has been, the Lake will afford even greater facilities for enjoyment than at any time previous. Mr. Harbaugh last evening erected a swing near the center of the congealed element, which will furnish extraordinary sport. The engines of the saw mill near by were to be employed last night in flooding the Lake, which would make the ice smoother and better.

A GOOD-BYE.—We cheerfully give place to the following from Miss Lisle Lester: "As I am about leaving Oregon, for my home in California, and having completed a tour of nearly three months through your State, I feel that a word of thanks is due the people of Portland for their universal kindness extended to me during my visit. To the Superintendent of the O. S. N. Co. and others of separate lines of travel, I am indebted for proffered favors and kindnesses; not claiming such favors, from my being a resident of another State, I feel deeply grateful for them and return my earnest gratitude. During hours of my illness, I have been the recipient of attentions and care hardly expected, and which places me under grateful remembrance. My whole trip has been fraught with welcome, kindness and hospitality, so generous, so heartfelt, I can but breathe a regret in leaving. Unlike correspondents from your sister State, I shall only recall the true worth and good of your people, instead of disparaging the State and society which boasts of loyal, earnest, whole-souled people. With gratitude for kindnesses, and many a pleasant memory clustering round the visit, we tender a 'good-bye' to Oregon and the friends in Portland, to be remembered with fervent admiration for their liberal souls, their generous hospitality, and kindly welcomes.

Truly Yours, LISLE LESTER.
Western Hotel, Jan. 26th, 1865.

TRINITY FESTIVAL.—The entertainment given at Willamette Theatre last evening, in aid of the Trinity Church Sunday School, was witnessed and appreciated by about two hundred persons, we should presume by the appearance of the Dress Circle and Parquette. The exercises opened with a charade, a serio-comic oration, and was followed by a tableaux representation, in two scenes, of Abraham and Isaac. The performances included a quite handsome programme, interspersed with singing and music, and was decidedly a treat for those in attendance. The performers were from our own home circles, and proved themselves very brilliant in affording favorite amusement on such an occasion. They were gentlemen and ladies from the walks of private life, and none are more respected, and probably feel grateful at the good they have accomplished in this manner. We can only say the affair passed off quite successful, and those only can be disappointed who were so unfortunate as not to see and hear what transpired.

THE WEATHER.—Col. C. H. Larrabie has furnished us with the following, which shows a state of the weather better for Oregon than one would imagine from the reputation our climate has, even among our own citizens. This record includes time since 15th of October last up to the 24th inst.

Clear days	19
Fair, cloud with sunshine	[illegible]
Rainy, sun not appearing	[illegible]
Showery, and sunshine	2
Misty, some fog in morning and evening	8

The thermometer yesterday morning at 7 o'clock stood at 18° above zero. We are promised hereafter the meteorological table for every week, and shall be pleased to keep our readers posted on the weather, which is quite an important topic with us "all the year round."

WATER.—The common topic on the streets for two days past has been water. Not the supply, but the lack of supply. Water will find its level, however, unless it is frozen, which seems to be the case at present with most of that intended for our citizens. The Company have been energetically at work to start the aqua through the street mains, and we understand, although not informed directly, that the purpose was accomplished yesterday. If this be true the supply pipes remain congealed in many places, and the cry will be water, still, for a time. When the storm is over, and the "mellow" days, for which our climate is better known, shall come again, we will be the better prepared to appreciate water. A saloon that can advertise water at its bar would be a popular place of resort for the printers, book-binders, physicians, etc., at the OREGONIAN Block, at least.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamer Cascade, Capt. VanBurgen, will leave Couch's wharf in this city at noon to-day, with freight, passengers and Express for the steamship for San Francisco, which is expected to be at Astoria, in consequence of ice in the Columbia, which would prevent her entering the Willamette.

NAVIGATION.—The steamer Vancouver, Captain Turnbull, failed to reach her destination yesterday, and landing her passengers on the Washington side of Columbia, returned to this city at [illegible] o'clock p. m.

SPIRITUAL LECTURES.—Mrs. Pollard, a trance speaking medium, late of San Francisco, is advertised to appear at Willamette Theatre on Friday evening January 27th.

EXPRESS.—Wells, Fargo & Co.'s California Express will close at 11 30 a. m.

Samaritan Lodge No. 2, I. O. of O. F.—Meets every Wednesday Evening, at 7 o'clock, in Stark's building, third story, opposite Arrigoni's Hotel. Members of the order are invited to attend.
Ja1 By order N. G.

CHINESE NEW YEAR'S DAY.—This is the day of the "Chinaman's calendar, ushering "New Year" with them, and undoubtedly it will be given to the usual ceremonies of celebrating their customs. The past year of the Chinese has been quite similar to our own, [illegible] three hundred and sixty-five days, [illegible]. The new year will contain thirteen months, and will be [illegible] all the Chinese stores [illegible] closed. [illegible] through the city, it is on tap with them, not very [illegible] different from our own [illegible] spread tables filled with dainties upon the [illegible] festivals. They suspend business generally, and an unusual number of Johns will be seen on the streets in "Sunday clothes," as the "Melican man" would say.

Protest from Skamania County, W. T.

CASCADES, Jan. 20, 1865.

Pursuant to a call the citizens of Skamania county having met for the purpose of taking steps to test the validity of the Legislative Assembly of Washington Territory in regard to the division of certain counties in said Territory, the meeting was called to order by electing W. L. [illegible] to the Chair and R. W. Post Secretary.

On motion, Messrs. J. Johnson, E. James and M. Travers were appointed a committee of three to draft resolutions.

The following resolutions were presented and adopted by the meeting:

WHEREAS, The Legislative Assembly of this Territory have thought proper to erase the county of Skamania from among the counties of this Territory, and as we believe without a shadow of law or justice, thereby setting at naught our rights and privileges as citizens; and whereas, said act was done when a remonstrance signed by over seventy five of our citizens was before them, and the petition praying for the division of the counties, and signed by half their number, many of whom were non-residents, and many of whose names were fraudulently obtained by it, therefore—

Resolved, That we believe it to be our right and privilege to vote in the matter of a division of our county, and until that privilege does take place we are resolved to test the validity of the recent act of the Legislature. And be it further

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to take such legal measures as will prevent the County Treasurer from paying over any moneys to the County Treasurer of Clarke county, and also prevent the County Auditor from turning over his books and county records to the authorities of said county. And be it also

Resolved, That the county officers be requested to continue in the exercise of the duties of their respective offices until deposed by legal authority.

On motion, it was resolved that a copy of the proceedings of this meeting be sent to the DAILY OREGONIAN, with a request that the same be published.

On motion, meeting adjourned.

Cure Your Cold, Save Your Lungs.
NEWELL'S
PULMONARY SYRUP
HAS CURED THOUSANDS!
And it will Cure You!

"A Cough is generally the effect of a Cold, which has either been improperly treated or entirely neglected. When it proves obstinate there is"
Always reason to fear the consequences,
as this shows a weak state of the lungs, and is often the forerunner of Consumption.—[Buchanan's Domestic Medicine.

STOP THAN COUGHING!
Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supercede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure; but

Pulmonary Syrup!
Is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefited by its surprising curative powers.

WHAT KILLED HIM?
Dr. Hall, in his "Journal of Health," speaking of the death of Washington Irving, asks the above question, and adds: "He might have remained with us for some years to come, had it not been for advice, kindly intended, no doubt, but given in thoughtlessness and reckless ignorance."

He Had a Cold!
Which, by some injudicious prescription, had been converted into asthma." Let me say to Dr. Hall that that "prescription" was not

NEWELL'S

A Greenback Case!
HAVING BEEN COMPELLED TO ACCEPT OF Legal Tender Notes at par since the 17th day of October, 1862, for the rent of my handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that

Jacob Mayer
Leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years at which time there was no such property in vogue, and it was understood the terms were Coin. Since the date as stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly, under protest for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,
Making less than two-fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see that he seeks to have such tenants. G. W. VAUGHN.

ERUPTION OF MAUNA LOA.—The following is a letter to the Honolulu Advertiser, dated November 10th:

"A new lake has opened in the crater of Kilauea, under the precipice where travelers used to build their anti-civilization huts. Last evening I walked three quarters of a mile to get a good view of it. It is a mile northwest of the old lake, [illegible], and has three or four lakes around its Eight fires are now seen in the crater in the night. The old lake is very active, and that part of the crater around the lake is swelling up, so that the fusion is breaking, but in spots nearer to the houses."

As far as we can judge, says the Advertiser, from the locality given, the "new lake" is near where the lava burst out in June, 1863, when the stream ran so as to cross the path which travelers follow in going to the old lake. It is now some years (January, 1859), since the last eruption of Mauna Loa, and as they have heretofore occurred every four or five years on an average, it is not unreasonable to look for another during the past winter, especially if the fall of rain on the Hawaii is abundant.

A NEW HAWAIIAN DICTIONARY is being printed. Already 340 pages are in type; about 200 more will finish the volume. About 40 pages will be filled with an English and Hawaiian vocabulary. Mr. Andrews is collecting materials for a life of Kamehameha I, or the "Great." Of him the Friend says:

The founder of the Kamehameha Dynasty was no ordinary man. He has been styled the Napoleon of the Pacific. Originally a petty chieftain, at the head of a small clan on Hawaii, he subsequently conquered all the islands, and during a period of more than 20 years was the Sovereign of this Kingdom. He died in May, 1819, less than one year before the American Missionaries landed upon the islands. He possessed great administrative and executive ability. He was ship-owner and ship-builder. He freighted vessels to China and dealt largely in foreign trade.

The 24th of November was observed by the American residents in Honolulu as a national thanksgiving, with prayer and solemnity.

Cotton has been successfully raised the past season, and large crops are to be raised this year.

REBEL INCENDIARIES.—The New York correspondent of the Bulletin, writing under date of the 12th ultimo, thus speaks of the recent rebel attempt to fire New York:

"That the danger is not over yet, may be gathered from the following notice 'to all whom it may concern,' which appeared in the Richmond Whig of the 7th instant:

'The failure of our employees to do their work recently, with skill, in the city of New York, makes it necessary for the brotherhood to meet and concert measures for a more decisive execution of the great retaliatory duty they have taken upon themselves at this juncture. Our own homes have been destroyed in violation of all the rules of war, and we must make our ruthless enemy feel the weight of our justly aroused vengeance in the very centres of his resources and wealth. We can do it—do it effectually.

You are, therefore, ordered to meet in this city, by delegates from our several associations in Virginia, North and South Carolina, at 8 o'clock on the evening of the 15th instant, for business.'

The notice is signed, 'The Great Brother.' There may be something in it, and then again it may be a mere sell, a scare-crow gotten up to keep alive the excitement in Northern cities. But it is noticeable for one thing, and that is the boldness with which this Richmond leader of the 'Brotherhood' shoulders the guilt of the incendiary attempts in this city, while the Copperhead press at our doors is sneeringly alluding to those attempts as the results of a conspiracy on the part of the Republicans to ruin the Democracy! The good policy of these journals in thus impressing their readers with the belief that any and every allusion to rebel cut-throats and incendiaries is levelled at the Democracy is not very apparent to ordinary intellects. Those favored individuals who sit at the feet of the august Belmont, sucking wisdom from his luminous storehouse, may possibly be able to give a satisfactory reason for this strange self-assumption of the odium which rebels ought to glory in alone."

HOW A LOYAL IRISHMAN FOUGHT AND VOTED.—Among all the many soul-stirring incidents at the polls on Tuesday, we have read of none more impressive and glorious than the following, described by the Providence Journal:

An instance of devotion like this, on the part of an adopted citizen of the country, is in itself a sufficient answer to all the cowardice of a peace party, and all the wretched assertions that this war against traitors has been or will be a failure. In Fall River there was a very touching case. Capt. James Brady, a warm-hearted and loyal Irishman, commanding a company of the 26th Massachusetts regiment, was severely wounded in the Shenandoah Valley, and is now at home in Fall River, with one leg off and three balls in his body. On election day he insisted upon giving one more shot at the enemy. Accordingly the shattered hero was placed upon a stretcher, covered with the American ensign, and borne by four men to the wardroom, where he deposited his vote for Lincoln and Johnson, every man present standing uncovered meanwhile, and not a few eyes suffused with tears. As the gallant captain was borne away, having discharged his patriotic duty, cheer after cheer attested the fact that the deed was appreciated.

MAN OF CONTRADICTIONS.—The Stockton Independent says:

Albert Pike, of Little Rock, Arkansas, furnishes the finest example of human inconsistency of which we have ever read. He is a poet, and has written some of the sweetest and finest lines in the language, full of charitable and pious sentiments. He is a finished scholar, a thorough lawyer, and in youth the sworn enemy of tyrants. His life for four years has been a libel on all that preceded. He has acted like a savage and a fiend. As a General he was worse than an Indian. As a Judge he is more outrageous than Jeffries, and has declared it treason to take the oath of allegiance to the United States. Of all the monsters developed in this civil war Pike is the greatest enigma.

FIGHT BETWEEN TWO EAGLES.—We learn from an eye-witness, says the [illegible] Herald, that a terrible encounter took place [illegible] bald and gray eagle, lately. It appears that the bald eagle had caught up something out of the water, perhaps a fish, when the gray one [illegible] St. [illegible] The bald eagle appears [illegible] instinctively what to expect [illegible] set up a shrill scream the moment [illegible] his antagonist [illegible] fought valorously for its prey [illegible] it was fairly vanquished. [illegible] To the victor belongs the spoils, and the [illegible] of America bore them off in this instance.

In Paris shops of tobacconists are agencies for the loan of umbrellas. Any one caught in a shower may procure one by depositing its value as security, returning it next day to any tobacconist's shop, an account being kept between them. Six sous is the price of a day's hire.

A Maine officer recently applied for a furlough, stating that if it was not granted he should lose a wife worth fifty thousand dollars; that there was another fellow after her, and that she had written to him that if he did not come home and marry her right away she would have the other man. He got his furlough.

The excavations at Pompeii have just led to the discovery of the Temple of Juno, on the steps of which were scattered about more than 200 skeletons. They are those of women and children who during the eruption of Vesuvius, had hastened to the temple to seek refuge and implore the protection of the goddess.

The Russian Government encourages marriages among its soldiers, provides the couple with a house, supports them, rears their children, but takes away all the boys at a tender age and sends them to military garrisons, there to be trained for the army. There are 300,000 of this kind of soldiers now in the Russian army.

A Military Commission recently tried a citizen who was enrolled at Washington nearly two years ago, thereby becoming liable to a draft, and who afterwards went to Richmond, enlisted in Mosby's band of guerrillas, and was subsequently captured. He was found guilty and sentenced to be shot to death; but his sentence has been commuted to confinement at hard labor for ten years in Clinton Prison, N. Y.

When I used to tend store at the "Regulator" in Syracuse, the old man comes round one day, and says he:

"Boys, the one that sells the most 'twixt now and Christmas, gets a vest pattern as a present."

May be we didn't work for that vest pattern! I tell you there were some tall stories told in praise of goods just about that time; but the tallest talker and the one that had more cheek than any of us was a certain Jonah Squires, who roomed with me. He could talk a dollar out of a man's pocket when the man only intended to spend a sixpence; and the women—Lord bless you!—they just handed over pocket-books to him, and let him lay out what he liked for them.

One night Jonah woke me up with, "By Josh, old fellow, if you think that ere's got any cotton in it, I'll bring down the sheep it was cut from, and make him swear to his own wool! 'Twon't wear out, either—wore a pair of pants of that kind of stuff myself for five years, and they're as good now as when I first put 'em on! Take it at thirty cents, and I'll say you don't owe me anything. Eh? too dear? Well, call it twenty-eight cents. What d'ye say? Shall I tear it? All right, it's a bargain."

I could feel Jonah's hands playing about the bed clothes for an instant, then rip! tear! went something or another, and I hid my head under the blankets, perfectly convulsed with laughter, and sure that Jonah had torn the sheet from top to bottom. When I woke up the next morning I found—alas! unkindest tear of all—that the back of my night shirt was split from tail to collar-band.

WHO WAS RIGHT?—James was a happy, playful, noisy boy. He delighted in that kind of sport which made the most stir and resulted in some kind of demonstration. One day his mother lost all her patience and cried out to him, "James, stop your noise and sit down quietly for the next hour, or I will punish you!" "Why mother," said he, "I can't keep still. I'd burst right open. I know I would, if I couldn't run and laugh and get the noise out of me."

Be patient, good parents, and if you are blessed with boys that have a good deal of noise in them, let it come out.

Such are the boys that will make a stir in the world, if you give them a chance.

At the Brady House, Harrisburg, a few days since, two friends were conversing, and one of them asked: "By the way, S[illegible], what are your politics?" "A democrat, sir, because my father was a democrat," answered the person addressed. "And what is your religion?" "A protestant, sir, because my father was a protestant." "And why are you a bachelor?" "Because my father was a—" at this moment S[illegible] happened to think what he was saying, so he turned away muttering, "Oh, darn! what's the use of talking? Don't bother me with your questions."

Our hearts are at least bright and hopeful of love in the one hour of meeting, and in the other when we part inconsolable; even as all the stars appear smaller, larger and more lovely at their rising and setting than when they pass over our heads.

Foolish and wicked wishes descend below, where, though they are but bodiless syllables, they are often fashioned by the imps into pins and needles, and straightway returned to the world to torment their author.

We all recollect the anecdote of the proud boy who boasted that his father had a horse, when his companion of poorer parentage replied, exultingly, "And my father has a horse, and a cow, too!"

Beardless youths, says Punch, are more prone to arrogance and self sufficiency. As they grow older their whiskers cover a great deal of their cheek.

A gentleman dining at a hotel where the waiters were few and far between, dispatches a lad among them for a cut of beef; after a long time he returned, and placing it before the gentleman, was asked: "Are you the boy who took the plate for beef?"

"Yes, sir."

"Bless me! you have grown this hungry, with, how you have grown."

[illegible] of [illegible] After a short time they lived [illegible] together, and [illegible] returned to her father's house [illegible] [illegible] Dust thou [illegible] return."

An Irishman recently handed in to the telegraph office a dispatch intended to inform another Irishman, employed in the works in a neighboring city, of the decease of a friend. It read thus: "Barney, come home: I died last night."

"Paddy, who is dead now?" said some one to an Irishman.

"Faix, I don't know, unless it's the man in the coffin."

A man being commiserated with on account of his wife running away, replied, "Oh, don't pity me until she comes back."

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction, even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED not to produce costiveness, which is the case with most remedies, or affect the head, as it contains no opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY, for so many deaths by CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. [illegible]
